Deed Book 61 (Copyright Valley) 1142

Nora F. Byrd
[illegible] Deed
[illegible] Wolfenbarger.

This Deed made and entered into this 17th day of October, 1902, between Nora F. Byrd, formerly Nora F. Myers, but now the divorced wife of George E. Myers by virtue and operation of a decree of the Circuit Court of Pocahontas County, West Virginia pronounced and entered at the October Term of said Circuit Court on Wednesday, October 8th, 1902, her name in said decree, being changed to her 83 maiden name, Nora F. Byrd, and she now living separate and apart from the said George E. Myers, party of the first part and J. M. Wolfenbarger of Greenbrier County, West Virginia party of the second part, Witnesseth: That for and in consideration of the sum of Thirty Dollars ($30.00) cash in hand paid at the delivery of this deed, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged the said Nora F. Byrd, party of the first part doth by these presents give, bargain, sell, grant and convey unto the said party of the second part the undivided one fifth interest in and to that certain lot, tract or parcel of land lying and being in Falling Spring District, Greenbrier County, West Virginia adjoining the lands of Calvin Hannah and others containing two (2) acres and Thirteen (13) poles, more or less, being the same lands said Nora F. Byrd and her brothers and sisters inherited from their mother Elizabeth F. Byrd and the interest in the same here conveyed being one fifth. To have and to hold the said interest in said land hereby conveyed unto the said J. M. Wolfenbarger his heirs and assigns forever. The said party of the first part warrants generally the title to the interest in said land here conveyed.
