Advertising Agency, married to Elaine Schmitt, who continues her own art interests along with her housekeeping.

Egbert W. Swackhamer, attending Dramatic Workshop of the New School for Social Research. (Permanent address: Groen Dak, Middletown, N. J.)

Neltje Weston van de Velde, c/o G. Weston, Wilton, Conn., B.S. Columbia, has just finished work as a vocational counselor with the Y.M.C.A., married (husband's name Louis)

Nancy C. West, 49 W. 9 St., New York City, head of Photo and Film Dept., National Audubon Society.

Norman B. Weston, 968 Madison Ave., Birmingham, Michigan, is in the trust dept., National Bank of Detroit; married to Anne H. Chapin, two children.

Frank M. White, Jr., 889 Walnut St., San Luis Obispo, Cal., student at California Polytechnic College in electronic engineering.

Don Wight, 1840 E. 82 St., Cleveland, Ohio, since leaving BMC has done freelance work in textile design for the D. Liebes Studio, in California, and is now making plans to study architecture.

Earlene Wight, 1840 E. 82 St., Cleveland, student at George Williams College.

Jeremiah F. Wolpert, 124 Mang Ave., Kenmore, N. Y., teaching at University of Buffalo in Sociology Dept., married to Sue Spayth, who has worked with TIME and LIFE, and has recently edited a labor paper.

Alice McNeil Woog, Apt. 14, West 6 Villege, Moscow, Idaho, student at University of Idaho; married (husband's name, Alan)

Eva C. Zhitlowsky, 68 Barrow St., New York City, doing work in writing.

The information above given is from the questionnaires sent out last year to former students. Those who have not returned questionnaires are invited to do so. Any who did not receive them or wish extras should write.

BMC print shop