G. L. Goodwin, Wake, one ox.
S. Smith, Raleigh, two Devon cows and two Devon heifers.
Mrs. M. M. Henry, Raleigh, Grade heifer, and a Grade cow and calf.
[The supply of specimens to this department was doubtless cut short by the prevailing disease in cattle. But the stock on exhibition was certainly creditable.]

Swine, Sheep and Goats.

Contributions under this head were made by the following:
J. W. B. Watson, Johnston; Dr. J. B. Dunn, Wake; J. R. Dunn, Wake; J. J. Ferrell, Raleigh; Dr. F. J. Haywood, Raleigh; H. Smith, Raleigh; Joseph Blake, Wake; S. H. Young, Raleigh; R. P. Taylor, Granville, (who exhibited a very creditable lot of nine sheep and seven lambs;) James Young, Raleigh; Maj. R. Fleming, Wake; Jackson Moss, Raleigh; E. Hall, Wake; Henry A. Moore, Halifax; Chas. Manly, Raleigh; and others.

Poultry.

This department was much better supplied than on the occasion of the last Fair. We have not space to enumerate more than the contributor's names, as follows:
Mrs. J. Nixon, Wake, T. P. Devereux, Raleigh; James Boylan, Wake; Miss L. M. Hill, Raleigh; Dr. D. DuPre, Raleigh; W. O. Upchurch, Raleigh; Master W. Jones, Raleigh; W. H. Holloman, Wake; Jackson Moss, Raleigh; Wm. Stronach, Raleigh; Dr. W. G. Hill, Raleigh; P. F. Pescud, Raleigh; G. B. Moore, Raleigh; A. J. M. Raleigh; Maj. J. M. Crenshaw, Wake; L. J. Norman, Wake; J. R. W. Primrose, Raleigh; Geo. W. Mordecai, Raleigh; L. R. Vaughn, Raleigh; E. Hall, Wake; Geo. Miller, Raleigh; Mrs. T. H. Selby, Raleigh; S. Smith, Raleigh; J. Crawford, Wake; Geo. Snow.
We have now closed our list. It will be apparent to all that it would have been impracticable to attempt a more particular notice. The reporter's object has been solely to mention every exhibitor in some department or other. He did not profess to pass judgment on the articles named, except where it was forced upon him from without. No one has been intentionally overlooked or slighted.
