February 4, 1960

Governor Luther Hodges,
Raleigh, N.C.

Dear Sir:

As taxpayers of North Carolina we suggest an immediate closing of A. & T. College in Greensboro, N.C. It seems that the students have nothing better to do than spend a better part of the average school day in downtown Greensboro in an uncalled-for demonstration.

Apparently the school has failed to educate their students and most of their graduates leave the