1812-1893

Physical Description: Letters, receipts, bills, promissory notes, recipe, freight bills, medical discharge, report, notices. 46 items.

Acquisition: Gift of C. H. Blanton, [REDACTED], Raleigh, N. C.
1962, July 10

Description: The correspondence contains several Civil War letters from and to D. B. Harrill, chiefly in regard to his health. There is a letter from W. H. Justice, Rutherfordton, February 4, 1879, concerning the sale of property, and another from L. A. Frazier, Laurinburg, March 24, 189- to Mrs. Harroll [Harrill].

A number of papers (1812-1847) relate to Drewry (Drury) Dobbins. These consist of receipts and bills; a bond for marriage between Henderson Borders and Susan Doggett; a recipe for an alcoholic beverage; a certificate of Dobbins' qualifications to serve as a minister of the gospel; appointment of Elder Dobbins and Elder Edmund Jones to represent the church at Sandy Run at the ordination of the minister at the Church of Christ at Long Creek; and notice of letters of administration taken on the estate of Drury Dobbins, August, 1847.

The D. B. Harrill family is represented in other papers (1858-1893). Items included are requests for merchandise, due bills, and freight bills on the Wilmington, Charlotte, and Rutherford Railroad Company and the Carolina Central Railway.

Two Civil War items are a monthly return sheet of Captain Joseph E. Byers, Company B, 34th North Carolina Troops, commanded by Colonel W. L. J. Lowrance, dated November, 1862; and a medical discharge for Lieutenant D. B. Harold (Harrill), Company B, 34th North Carolina Infantry, from General Hospital, No. 4, Richmond, Virginia.
