

PHOTOGRAPH COLLECTION 113

Collection: Anthony Troy Elliott Photograph Collection

Physical Description: 1 album, 1 panoramic group photo. and 2 documents - 1 box

Acquisition: The collection donated to the State Archives by Brenda Elliott Brickhouse, 1012 Bayfield Dr., Raleigh, NC 27606

Description: This collection contains a panoramic group photograph of members of Company 424, a Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) Camp, New Holland, Swan Quarter, NC, and an album of photographs primarily of this Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) Camp, Company 424, and a CCC Camp in or near Albemarle, c.1935-1940's, and a few photographs of servicemen taken overseas and one of an unidentified community, village, or camp labeled "Sinajana, Guam." Also accompanying the panoramic photo and the album are two documents—a list of the members of Company 424 made for a 1990 reunion of this group and a copy of some CCC rules attached to a copy of a speech made by Morgan H. Harris, Associate Superintendent, Hyde County Schools, gave at the 5th Annual CCC Reunion in 1993. Anthony Troy Elliott was a member of Company 424, CCC Camp, and was a native of Perquimans County.

Arrangement: PRELIMINARY—no processing done. Photographs are as they were assembled there by Mr. Elliott

Box No. Contents

113 One panoramic photo, one album, and two documents

113

Descriptive Summary

Title

James Bolles Postcard Collection, ca. 1910-1960, Ph.C.114

Creator

James Bolles

Abstract

Early 20th century postcards and picture souvenir packets c. 1910-1960 depicting western North Carolina scenes and historic sites including Biltmore House, Pisgah National Forest, various scenes, buildings, and businesses in Asheville and surrounding area, Great Smoky Mountains National Park, and much more. All six picture souvenir packets were published by the Asheville Post Card Co., Asheville,