

PHOTOGRAPH COLLECTION 138

Collection: Sharon Raiford Bush Photograph Collection

Physical Description: 1 CD-R (contains images and documents), 1 audio CD (contains 3 "read only" audio files), 6 pages (paper documents)

Acquisition: Donated 26 January 2009 by

Sharon Raiford Bush
3850 Inglewood Blvd, Ste 5
Mar Vista, CA 90066

Description:

- Two digital images:
 - One (1) depicts the nation's first African American TV news anchor team -- Amyre Porter (Makeupson), Doug Morison, and Sharon Crews (Raiford Bush) ~ in the Detroit, Michigan, WGPR-TV news studio in 1975.
 - One (1) depicts Crews at the authentic magnetic weather map. Sharon Raiford Bush is a North Carolinian originally of Greensboro, NC.
- One (1) audio recording of President Gerald R. Ford's congratulatory remarks to the inaugural anchor team, management and staff on that historic occasion, 1975.
- A transcription of Ford's remarks.
- Printouts of the two images.
- Letter dated 20 January 2009 from Sharon Raiford Bush explaining the donation.
- Two (2) pages of notes further documenting/describing the collection.

NOTE:

The following conditions apply to this donation:

Donation of the items does not include donation of copyright, which is retained by the donor.

Donation of the items for the purpose set forth here does not include transfer or assignment of any copyright, trademark, or any other right, title or interest in and to the items, all of which are retained by owner.

The donor wishes the North Carolina State Archives' public description of the items to note that Sharon Raiford Bush is donor and copyright holder, and that CBS Corporation digitally restored and enhanced the images.

Arrangement: One folder filed with other Non-Textual Materials collections in State Archives stacks.