

PhC.184	Steve Massengill Digital Postcard Collection	Digital copies of postcards depicting North Carolina scenes and events from across the state dating from the turn of the last century through the 1950's. The original postcards from which these copies were made were all at one time part of the personal collection of Steve Massengill, former Non-Textual Materials Unit Archivist at the State Archives. Many have since been sold by Massengill to other private collectors.	1,117 images, color, 300 dpi
---------	--	--	---------------------------------------

Filed in Digital Repository with other digital Non-Textual Materials, Photograph Collections.