

PhC.186	Joffre L. Coe Photograph Album	Photographs taken by renowned archeologist Joffre L. Coe of African-American children, scenery and yards, and parts of a home (no longer extant) at 507 Halifax Street, Raleigh, NC, c.1936. Album was given by Coe to Billy Oliver of the North Carolina Office of State Archeology at an unknown time with the intent that it be sent to an appropriate repository. The album was passed to Steve Claggett when Billy Oliver left his job, and Claggett donated it to the State Archives in January of 2012.	23 5"x7" black and white prints (some of these are duplicates of same images) in a 14 1/2"x11" photo album (album has an unusual/strange page set-up)
