Acquisition:

Description: A deed on parchment exhibited by Graham Daves, New Bern, 1892. The deed (1773) was issued to Ennis Graham, New York, great-grandfather of Daves. It is between Graham and John Hastier, mariner, Francis Bassett, pewterer, of New York, William Lucy, merchant of Elizabeth, New Jersey, and Margaret Hastier, New York, heirs of John Hastier, for land in New York City.

Notes:
Barbering account (1813) done by Jno. C. Stanley, whom Daves describes in a note (1893) as "Barber
John ... a man of respectability and a large slave owner."
